Quantity: 4 Albums; 1 box (1 cubic ft.)

Access: Open for Research

Date Processed: 1990s/2014

Arrangement: Items in this collection are arranged chronologically. The majority of the collection is stored in four albums, which are organized into separate sections by date and topic (with the exception of Album #4). The rest of the collection is stored in folders in a box. The first album also contains photos of the Hotel Van Curler.

Historical Note: This collection of photos depicts the earliest days of SCCC up through the first decade of the 21st century. The collection was collected and curated by staff at Begley Library.

Scope/Content Note: The SCCC Photos collection contains photographs from the early days of the college, including opening day ceremonies and pictures of the Community College Study Committee and the first students to enroll. The bulk of the collection are photos of academic and extracurricular activities from 1969 to 1990, although the collection also contains some photographs from as recent as 2012. Special Collections also contains another separate collection of photos curated by the Public Relations department, containing photos ranging from the late 1980s up through the early 2000s, which can be accessed using the Public Relations Photo Collection finding aid.
